

Dr. Keiko Osaki - Tomita

President,
Tokiwa University and Tokiwa Junior College

Dr. Keiko Osaki Tomita joined the Population Division at the United Nations Headquarters in 1988. After gaining experience as the Chief of the Social Policy and Population Section at the United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UNESCAP), she served as the Assistant Director of the Statistics Division of the United Nations. During her service she held additional positions as a visiting fellow of the Institute for Population and Social Research at Mahidol University in Thailand, and a member of International Advisory Board of population census in Bosnia-Herzegovina and the Republic of the Union of Myanmar. She continues to serve as a member of the group of experts on international migration statistics at the United Nations. She assumed her present post in April of 2019.